RINK CARNIVAL

Last Night One of the Hits of the Big Skatorium—Prize Winners

The Princess Rink was packed to the doors last night, while 200 skaters of both sexes, and composing all sorts and conditions of men and women in hideous and beautiful togs, awayed and swung to the entrancing music. It is nearly as much fun to watch the gay skaters as it is to skate and the fun didn't end until nearly 10:30 o'clock.

The $25 offered by the Rink managers in prizes was the lodestone which drew the people out.

The costumes, at least many of them, were very unique and beautiful and to attempt to name one without describing all, would appear like rank favoritism, therefore the whole push were the real, rolling thing—and then some.

Best couple, Miss Maggie Guilfoyle and George Diener, "Yellow Kids."

WALL STREET FIGHT

Dexter Man, Full of Booze, Has an Inning There

It has been some moons since Wall street has come to the fore with a real old-fashioned war-dance—one that made the welkin ring with warwhoops, and a snake dance as a side issue.

Monday night Filmore Dotson, hailing from near Dexter, full of booze and looking for trouble, wandered into the red light district of this ancient fish market square, and he was not long in getting what he was looking for.

He bucked up against Hardwood Hall, dominated by Mrs. Hattie Reynolds and progeny, colored, and his conduct was such as to offend and bring down upon his head the wrath of the boss of the walk to such an extent that a free-for-all fight was soon in full swing and a riot call had to be phoned into Police headquarters to quell the disturbance.

When Policeman Crawford and Sergeant Gervin arrived on the scene the battle had been fought and won and quiet reigned supreme, but there was evidence of the combat.

Dotson was found in the middle of the street hors de combat and was gathered up and placed in an improvised patrol wagon—a wheelbarrow—and in charge of the Sergeant carted off to the bastille, while Bruce rounded up the half dozen other participants.

According to the Assessor's books there has been a decided decimation of the canine population in Mason county in the past twelve months. In 1907 there were 1,653 dogs enumerated, and in 1908 the number had fallen to 999, a decrease of 554. The Fiscal Court of Franklin county Monday appointed a committee to go before the joint legislative committee on State Capitol and Grounds and make a proposition offering the state $50,000 for the old State Capitol and grounds. It is also agreed by the county that in the event the offer is accepted the historic pile known as the Statehouse will be preserved.

NEW EMBROIDERIES That Are Irresistible

Their chief charm lies in their utter dissimilarity to any embroideries of other seasons. Many of them you would mistake for laces—so frequently is the Venice lace idea brought into them, in medallions or as edgings.

The medallion idea, by the way, is very popular, in distinction to continuous running patterns. And there are many combinations of Mexican drawn work effects with the raised or button-hole embroidery.

To judge from this rich assortment, that has just come to us from St. Gall, Bandings will enjoy greatest favor, for the fronts of waists and skirts. Many are on fine Swiss, others on batiste and Nainsook. Then, of course, there are the Insertions, Edgings, Demi-Flounces, full 45-inch Flounces and Allovers, many of which come in sets that match throughout.

The collection is so varied that we can't give details—prices range from 25c to $2½.

POWERS has been a victim of the cruelest of circumstances and a political martyr pitied and sympathized with by the entire Justice-loving world; therefore, he should have first been vindicated by an acquittal or a pardon before he entered into a political contest for one of the highest elective offices within the gift of the people.

We believe CALEB POWERS to be innocent of the murder of WILLIAM GOEBEL, and would like to see him walk the earth a free Kentuckian once more, but he will never further his struggle to gain his liberty by announcing from the walls of a County Jail his premature political aspirations.

Mr. POWERS should recall that letter and announce over his own signature that he has deferred his race for Congress until the Courts or the Governor of Kentucky have declared him eligible to enter a contest.

BILL OF RIGHTS.

That the great and essential principles of liberty and free government may be recognized and established, we declare that SECTION 1. All men are, by nature, free and equal, and have certain inherent and inalienable rights, among which may be reckoned:

First—The right of enjoying and defending their lives and liberties.

Second—The right of worshipping Almighty God according to the dictates of their consciences.

Third—The right of seeking and pursuing their safety and happiness.

Fourth—The right of freely communicating their thoughts and opinions.

Fifth—The right of acquiring and protecting property.

Sixth—The right of assembling together in a peaceable manner for their common good, and of applying to those invested with the power of government for redress of grievances or other proper purpose, by petition, address or remonstrance.

Seventh—The right to bear arms in defense of themselves and of the State, subject to the powers of the General Assembly to enact laws to prevent persons from carrying concealed weapons.

SECTION 2. ABSOLUTE AND ARBITRARY POWER OVER THE LIVES, LIBERTY AND PROPERTY OF FREEMEN EXISTS NOWHERE IN A REPUBLIC, NOT EVEN IN THE LARGEST MAJORITY.

To the Voters and Citizens of Mason County:

In accepting the nomination tendered me by the Republican Party in mass convention at the Court-house, February 25th, 1908, I had in mind the second section of our "Bill of Rights," which is the foundation of our Constitution, and the following resolution unanimously adopted at that time:

"Resolved, That the question of supreme importance in Kentucky today is the lawlessness prevalent throughout the State, and the Republicans of Mason County hereby condemn it, declare themselves in favor of law and order, and place the nominee of this convention on that platform."

It was so in accord with my own views regarding the lamentable condition of affairs in our grand old "Blue Grass State" and county, that I had no hesitancy in consenting to be the standard-bearer in this brief campaign. I therefore now appeal to you, voters of Mason County, to stand with me on this platform, and by our voices and votes at the coming election prove to our fellow citizens that we of Mason County are determined to uphold and defend the majesty of the law.

Acts of violence, which bring shame and disgrace to our beloved State, are occurring nightly throughout the Commonwealth. Every patriotic citizen of our own county certainly hopes, with me, that no stain shall be cast upon the pages of its history by such occurrences.

There can be no more effective way of showing that such is the case than by voting for me and thus for the platform upon which I stand, and amidst such conditions as now surround us the moral effect of the victory for this platform would be of untold value.

Read the "Bill of Rights" which is the bulwark of protection for each individual, no matter how humble or obscure he may be, and act for the good of the State and the approval of your own consciences.

I was born and reared in Mason County, as was my father. My position on all questions pertaining to right and wrong for the betterment of my County and State are well known, "for in secret have I said nothing."

If elected as your Representative I shall, to the extent of my judgment and ability, serve the best interests of my County and State.

Respectfully,

C. C. DEGMAN.

TOBACCO BILL

Causing Wide Range of Discussion in the Legislature—Protection
For Citizens De-

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 3d.—There were not more than 40 members of the House of Representatives present this morning, when Speaker Gooch rapped for order. Mr. Strange of Hart county at once took the floor to continue his speech in favor of the McChord tobacco bill. He paid especial attention to Section 6 of the measure and explained that it does not discriminate in the least against the buyer of tobacco.

Mr. Strange offered an amendment with the approval of Mr. McChord, the author, which makes it clear, he said, that no discrimination against any grower of tobacco, in whatever district, would be possible. He paid a tribute to the Society of Equity and said that if it continued to grow for the next three years as rapidly as it has grown in the past three and the Association is given protection by legislation, the tobacco problem would be solved.

Mr. Wallace of Louisville delivered a vigorous speech against the bill. He said the extension of the police power of the state so that it would control the tobacco industry was wrong. He condemned lawlessness, such as night riding. Representative Arnett of Covington made a plea for the poverty-stricken growers of the tobacco, whose condition, he said, those here on the floor, who are living in comparative ease, can hardly realize. He said the proposition before the Legislature today was that the organization of the best farmers of Kentucky was responsible for forcing the Trust to pay what the crop was worth.

DEMANDS PROTECTION.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 3d.—Representative Feland offered a memorial from the Law and Order League of Hopkinsville, setting forth the necessity of such action as will insure to the citizens of that section protection for their lives and property. The shooting of a brakeman in the back, the scraping of the plant bed of a poor widow, attacks on a woman who tried to protect her husband and other such outrages are enumerated. The memorial urges the passage of laws which will prevent savage bands from riding at night and terrorizing communities.

There is a vacancy in the Master Commissionership of Mason county and it would be quite the handsome thing and a popular selection if Judge Harbeson were to appoint Mr. B. B. Pollitt, the polite and accommodating Deputy Circuit Court Clerk, to fill the unexpired term. Mr. Pollitt has had experience in that line, having acted as Special Commissioner on many occasions and always given perfect satisfaction.

TWELVE DOLLARS

Per Month For Widows' Pensions
Under New Bill Passed by Congress

WASHINGTON, March 2d.—The Widows' Pension Bill, which was passed by the House, was reported favorably to the Senate today by Senator McCumber, Chairman of the Committee on Pensions.

It increases to $12 per month the pensions drawn by widows of soldiers who served in any Indian War, the War with Mexico or the Civil War.

The Senate Committee added a provision removing certain marriage restrictions, which provision, it is estimated, would add about 20,000 to the list of pensioners at a cost of $2,880,000 a year.

The estimated annual cost of the bill as reported is $14,678,112.

IF all matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock a. m.

Pittsburgh is passing through another flood siege, the second this year, and there is much suffering in consequence. While the river rose at this point at a rapid rate for a few days the scare and danger of a flood stage has about passed, for the present, at least. What this erratic river will do before the month is out, is a prognostical problem that will develop itself later on. It is best not to jubilate too soon; remember last year.

ADMONITIONS FOR THE LENTEN SEASON.

What does the Church require of me in Lent? "Turn to the Lord their God." How you are to do that is a personal matter between you and your God. But she expects you to do it.

As a help thereto she advises "such a measure of abstinence as is more especially suited to extraordinary acts of devotion." Sin and evil habit are seldom conquered without abstinence of some kind.

Fasting is not to be ridiculed as a useless direction of the Church nor taboos as a vagary of the cloister. Moses fasted, Elijah fasted, St. Paul fasted often, Christ fasted. "The servant is not greater than his Lord."

However, fasting is only a means, not an end. "Eat an ox, and be a Christian," was the reply of an old Jesuit father to a penitent who could not abstain from meat.

Nor is the Church's rule the price of an indulgence. You are not to fast through Lent that you may sin the more after Lent. It is a means to that "holiness without which no man shall see the Lord."

To use the indignant language of the prophet, you are not to "fast for strife and debate and to smite with the fist of wickedness." This is the fast that God has chosen: To loose the bands of wickedness, your own and others; to bear the heavy burdens, your own and others; to let the oppressed go free, yourself, and others; that you deal your bread to the hungry; that you clothe the naked; that you hide not yourself from your own flesh.

Your work or your health may forbid fasting. Limited means may prevent your giving to charity and to the Church as much as you would like to give. But can you not do this? Can you not give less time to amusement and more to religion? If you are a communicant of the Church let it be known by attendance at the services, and especially at the Holy Communion. Do what you can to make this season a help to yourself and a help to others. In conclusion, whatever you do, do willingly gladly; as a privilege.

Jesus Christ will accept your service according to what you have and not according to what you have not. Serve God and be cheerful.

John and Henry Combs were each given 27 years in the Pen for the murder of their uncle, Thomas Benton Combs, who had served a term for killing his brother. Of course this happened in Breathitt, where homicide, patricide, fratricide and all kinds of crime happen, except suicide.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.
Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily; when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

Frederick Dressel, 1238 East Second street, Maysville, Ky., says:
"I consider Doan's Kidney Pills a most excellent kidney remedy, and I am only too glad of an opportunity to speak in their behalf. About five years ago I was bothered by kidney trouble. The kidney secretions were attended with much pain during passage and were very irregular in action. Severe pains across the small of my back were of frequent occurrence and at times greatly interfered with my work. A friend advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills, as he had taken them for a similar trouble with the best of results, and I procured a box at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore. I used them strictly according to directions and they afforded me prompt and effective relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box; Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
